

English Teacher Job Description:

Longleaf School of the Arts is a North Carolina public charter high school. We are a college preparatory school focusing on the fine arts. Our mission:

Longleaf School of the Arts will develop students into confident, responsible, and successful contributors in college, career, and community through mentorship and a challenging curriculum that integrates academics and the fine arts.

Job Summary:

The English Teacher will be responsible for developing in each student an interest in reading and writing across various genres. He or she will also possess the ability to work with multiple levels of aptitude in each classroom, demonstrating a high proficiency for developing critical thinking skills within these various levels of the high school English curriculum. Instruction in reading and writing includes close textual reading, timed and processed writing, research, notetaking, content vocabulary, grammar, real-world application, and knowledge of the school's three teaching ideologies.

Job Description:

- Create standards based lesson plans for all classes, while being innovative in these lessons
- Incorporate arts into academic lessons
- Understand how to use technology in the classroom; Longleaf is a 1:1 school
- Work collaboratively with members within the department, as well as across curriculums
- Provide individual and small-group instruction to adapt the curriculum to the needs of students with varying intellectual abilities, accommodating a variety of instructional activities
- Utilize knowledge of classroom management strategies

Minimum Requirements:

- Bachelor's or Master's Degree
- NC Teacher License in Secondary English is required